Dear Grade 10 Parents and Guardians:

Greetings!

At the heart of Assumption Transformative Education is each student's holistic faith formation that is anchored on deepening their relationship with Jesus Christ. In line with this, the Grade 10 students will have their overnight class recollection based on the theme: "Called to Meet Christ in Scriptures, Church, and Sacraments." This activity aims to lead students to a deeper knowledge and love of Jesus through their experiences of being loved, forgiven, and grateful for God's blessings, and the reception of the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Eucharist. With the grace that they will receive, the students become more committed to live out their faith as witnesses of Jesus.

Their recollection dates are:

Grade 10 – 1 September 24 – 25
Grade 10 – 2 October 2 – 3

Grade 10 – 3 November 6 – 7
Grade 10 – 4 November 12 – 13

Time: 7:30a.m. to 4:00 p.m. the following day
Venue: Assumption Antipolo Retreat House
Snacks, lunch, and dinner will be served.

The students will be expected to comply with the following:

- ❖ Wearing of the proper attire of simple jeans, blouse or T-shirt, rubber shoes or sneakers (No sandals or slippers will be allowed.)
- ❖ Bringing their coloring materials, stationery, The New American Bible, Liturgy of the Hour, pen and notebook.
