Live Fully as God's Beloved!
School Thrust 2017 – 2018

July 11, 2017

Dear Parents and Guardians,

A good day to you!

We at Plaid Ideas are inviting your daughter to join us for a news writing and feature writing workshop on July 15, 2017 here at Assumption Antipolo. All members of the publication are invited and highly encouraged to participate in this event.

As a club and school publication, we aim to provide an open environment in which the students may be able to cultivate their skills and talents, as well as share their abilities with the world. This workshop will be the first of three workshops set for this school year. These workshops will provide the members with an arsenal of knowledge on the basics of journalism which they will be using for the duration of the school year and further on for whatever field they plan to pursue. Talks from speakers who are experienced in the field will enlighten the members of the publication various aspects of journalism. Moreover, hands-on activities will also be held for all departments of the publication, namely, the online and broadsheet writers, photographers, videographers and layout artists.

The first workshop will be given by speakers from The Guidon, the official student publication of Ateneo de Manila University. The activities are to be facilitated by the club moderators and the Plaid Ideas Editorial Board.
