Dear Parents and Guardians,

Greetings of Peace!

As part of Assumption Antipolo's commitment to build a strong home-school partnership, the Guidance Center organizes parenting talks that aim to help parents deal with developmental needs and issues of their children according to their age/grade levels. For this year, we are glad to inform you that the parenting talk for Preschool will be held on Saturday, August 18, 2017 from 8:00 to 11:30 am at the Mini-Theater.

Our resource person Mrs. Angelica Flores-Morales, LPT, M. Ed, a Ph. D. candidate on Family Life, will give a talk entitled "Making Our Preschoolers Resilient, Self-Disciplined and Rooted to their Filipino Identity". Her talk is based on current researches and her life experiences as teacher and mother. She will highlight how parenting styles influence children's self-image, social skills, and resistance towards adversities. As an advocate of Filipino culture, she will also discuss how love for country and culture contributes to the development of healthy sense of identity among children.

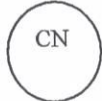

Kindly mark your calendar and save the date. A gentle reminder for our participants, please refrain from bringing your children in order to maximize the learning opportunity during the parenting talk. Your presence is an affirmation of our valued home-school partnership.

Sincerely,

Josephine P. Valencia
